This is a very interactive immersion program for foster youth who might need a little encouragement to be thinking about college or university after graduating from high school. If you have a youth with an open DCFS case interested in learning more about college and could use some incentive to do well in school – THIS IS THE PROGRAM FOR THEM!!!

The Department of Children and Family Services Education Section will be holding workshops to assist youth and families in completing their applications on Saturday April 16, 2010 from 10 am to 2 pm at the following locations:

Kinship Resource Center – North
5035-G West Slauson Ave
Los Angeles, CA 90056

Kinship Resource Center – South
9834 Norwalk Blvd
Santa Fe Springs, CA 90675

Please RSVP to attend the workshops – Call Steve Sturm at 213.351.5620, Patty Armani at 213.351.5789 or Jennifer Hottenroth at 213.351.5775 or by sending an email to youth.education.support@dcfs.lacounty.gov Also, if the application is completed at the workshop, DCFS will handle getting the applications to UCLA Bruin Guardian Scholars Summer Academy!!

GO BRUINS!!! GO KIDS!!!
