Serena is a very outgoing and engaging 15-year-old young lady. Her natural leadership attributes will certainly land her a career someday that would allow her to “shine.” Among her many interests is acting. With the holidays around the corner, it was fitting to bring her for a visit with A Noise Within (ANW), the acclaimed classical repertory theatre company in Pasadena, CA. that is presenting its well-loved production of Charles Dickens’ A Christmas Carol. Actor, Taleen Shrikian took the lead in showing Serena the “Company” and then they were off to see the inner workings of the production.

While acting will provide Serena with even more refinement in communications, Serena also has her heart set on a career in the military – Army, to be specific. In fact, when she learned about the ROTC program at school, she made the decision to join and did it all on her own. This vibrant young lady is very motivated in everything that she does. Serena is active in outdoor activities as well, such as playing basketball and roller-skating.

Serena has her sights on college and a hope for a forever family. What Serena is looking for in an adoptive family is simple; someone to love and someone to love her back unconditionally. We will continue our backstage tour of ANW and Serena will be a VIP guest at one of their performances. Until then, tune in to Wednesday’s Child and then call to learn more about adoption at 1-866-921-ADOPT (2367).
