Freddie Mac Foundation's
Wednesday's Child

This week Wednesday's Child is taking to the ice with Keytante (2002) and Edward (2006), an adorable duo who complement one another well. When asked who's their favorite character in the movie Toy Story, Edward would tell you "Woody" and Keytante would say "Buzz Lightyear" – so we brought our duo to the set of Toy Story 3, The Musical for a private meet and greet with their favorite characters, Woody and Buzz.

Keytante is a handsome kid who at times becomes protective and maybe even a bit parental towards his brother but who is still a kid and loves Spider Man, basketball, video games and dogs. He is very considerate and as the older brother he's also a little cautious. Keytante can be soft-spoken and he is often inquisitive. Keytante says he's tried skates before but in this new setting and situation, he cautiously tested the "waters" to make sure it was OK to give it a go. As the older one, he also felt things out just to make sure things are going to be OK for his little brother.

Edward is a free spirit and is very athletic. There isn't much he wouldn't try and he's not afraid to take chances. Edward had never skated before, but after his meet-and-greet with the Toy Story cast he was ready to just jump right into it and do it on his own. He is affectionate, active, has an easy-going demeanor and follows directions very well.

These brothers deserve and desire to live and grow up together, so separating them is not an option we want to consider. We're looking for a family that has the space in their hearts and home for this pair to skate on into.
