QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

   RESPONSE: Yes, prospective contractors should submit a copy of the subcontract/Memorandum Of Understanding (MOU) for adoption services with the SOQ submission.

   RESPONSE: The Prospective Contractors’ Conference held on October 22, 2015 was targeted for non-contracted licensed FFAs.

5. QUESTION: Prospective contractors who have two FFA licenses, do they need to submit a copy of each location license?

   RESPONSE: Yes, prospective contractors must submit a copy of the FFA license for each office they want contracted.
1. QUESTION: Addendum #14, page 8 (part of 1.4.2 Target Demographics for GH Program) County of Los Angeles DCFS and Probation, lists ages of 0-18, while SOW page 10, PART B: Target Demographics 1.0 lists ages as, until 21.

RESPONSE: The age group of 0-18 listed in Addendum 14 of the RFSQ, Subsection 1.4.2 Target Demographics for GH Program is accurate, which is ages 0-18. The age group referenced in the SOW recognizes that foster youth and services was extended to non-minor dependents to age 21 in accordance with AB 12; however, the services within the group home setting is 0-18. Youth cannot remain in GHs after age 18 or after achieving their High School Diploma, whichever comes first.
